2 April 1952

MEMORANDUM FOR: Assistant Deputy Director(Administration)

SUBJECT: Total Military Requirements for Fiscal Year 1953 (for DCI)

1. The total Agency requirement, with justification, for military personnel for Fiscal Year 1953, is being compiled for re-submission to the Defense Department.

2. In accordance with the instructions received from the Assistant Deputy Director/Administration, it is necessary that your office furnish Military Personnel Division the following information pertaining to your activity prior to 16 April 1952:

a. Your total military personnel requirement estimated for Fiscal Year 1953, to be submitted per attached example.

b. Justification of the total requirement in terms which are specific enough to portray the portion of your mission for which military personnel must be used.

3. The total requirement as submitted by your office will be your present military authorization as changed by any increase or decrease planned for Fiscal Year 1953. The justification for this requirement will involve a review and repetition of past justifications, if applicable.

4. In addition to supporting this Agency's requirement for Fiscal Year 1953, your reply will be utilized, at a later date, as a guide for the development of a military T/O for your office.
